Democratic Central Committee.

The members of the Marion County Democratic Central Committee are requested to meet in Indianapolis, at the Sentinel office, at 3 o'clock P. M., on Saturday, the 8th inst. It is hoped that all of the members will be punctual in their attendance, as business of an important character will be presented. N. HAYDEN. Nov. 1, 1862

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

Counterfeit silver dollars are in circulation. They are a good imitation, but lighter than the genuine.

For fresh Bultimore Oysters, raw, stewed or fried, go to Cunningham's, on Illinois street, opposite the Governor's mansion.

District Attorney has in his possession a number of sham indictments found by that Grand Jury to influence the elections. The result in Indiana Ohio, Pennsylania, New Jersey, and New York has killed the labors of the Grand Jury, and nolle prosequi will of course be entered.

METROPOLITAN HALL -To night the beautiful play of Love's Sacrifice will be produced at the Metropolitan. It is the last night but two of the stay in our city of the charming young actress who has fairly wen by merit the unbounded ad miration of the intelligent public. To morrow night Miss Coombs takes her tarewell benefit.

The fall term of the Circuit Court of the United States commences one week from next Monday. In consequence of the death of Judg Huntington it will be incumbent upon Chief Jus tice Taney to designate the District Judge to pre side at the term. Judge Swayne, of the United States Circuit Court, will be required in Washing ton in December-on the first Monday-and some appointment is not made, the term here wil be necessarily brief.

DRESS GOODS AND CLOAKS .- The ladies of th city have of course nearly all visited the New York Store since the Fall and Winter Stock o Dress Goods has been opened out there. They ar superb. We have before noticed the cloaks, but can not forbear to speak of them again. "A thing of beauty is a joy forever," and one look at the splendid collection only creates the desire to see them again. Gentlemen who desire to send ac ceptable and elegant presents to their lady friends should call at Glenns's, and make choice from the varied and rich assortment of cloaks.

ORGAN BUILDING -John G Marklove has jus completed the building of a fine organ at hi manufactory on Bleecker street. The powers of the instrument were tested by Professor Sieboti before a private audieuce on Wednesday evening with a success that should be highly gratifying t the builder. The organ is a fine, rich toned and powerful instrument, and proves the great skill and competency of Mr Marklove as a builder It is built for a church in Indianapolis, Ind., and will in the far West be a standing testimony to the reputation of Utica for building first-class organs .- Utica Herald.

The instrument noticed above was built for th Third Presbyterian Church of this city. It is o the way here, and it is said that it will exce anything of the kind here.

FROM HELENA -A letter was received yesterday by Mr Burgess from Col. Cameron, of the 34th regiment, dated Heiena, Arkansas Col. Cameron had just returned from Little Rock, whither he had gone with a flag of truce. He says there is no regular rebel force at that point, competent hands, good presses, a fine assortment and but few soldiers on the route. Such being the fact, it is hardly probable that the expedition talked of to take Little Rock will start. It is a point of no strategic importance, and simply marching a force there and then marching them back again without meeting an enemy would be labor in vain.

STATUTES OF INDIANA.

GAVIN & HORD'S REVISION. The second volume of Mesers Cavin & Rord's compliation of Indiana Statutes has just appeared. This volume completes their work. Its mechanical execution is ver creditable; and the skill, learning, and labor which the editors have bestowed on it, morit the highest praise.

None but learned, diligent lawyers could have produced The second volume embraces all the public statutes of ludiana now in force upon the subjects to which it relates, and the first all excepting the acts of the last regular and extra sessions of the Legislature. It is a great excellence of the compilation that all existing statutes on each subject are collected together in the same place in these volumes; so that the reader can see at a glance all the legislation in force on any given subject. Take, for example, the act of 1852, organizing Courts of Common Pleas-the editors publish the act at large, and they also print, in the form of notes on the same pages containing this statute, all the acts amendatory to it which have been passed up to this time. And so they have done of all the other sets contained in the revision of 1852. The oditors have added much to the value of these volumes-especially the last-by the copious and learned notes with which the volumes abound. These notes indicate much labor and legal acumen. They furnish us, in a concise and accurate form, with all the adjudications of our Supreme Court on these statutes. These adjudications being now very numerous, the references to them In the volumes under consideration, will be of great value to the lawyer, and indeed to all persons concerned in the administration of Justice. The editors have also referred, n their notes, to numerous decisions in other States,

An excellence of these volumes, not to be overlooked statutes published by authority. This provoking defect has been completely remedied in the volumes under reall who have occasion to look into our statutes. This is the first time that private enterprize has attempted the publication of Indiana statutes. The attempt, I do not doubt, will be successful, and will duly reward the learned editors and enterprising publishers. Every lawyer will, of course, purchase these volumes; and every clerk, sheriff, and justice of the peace of the

DAVID M'DONALD. Indianapolis, June 5, 1862 The loregoing notice by Judge McDoxald, of Gavis & Honn's Compilation of the Statutes of Indiana, is not derigned as a pull of the work, but is an unsolicited commendation of the ability, accuracy, and completeness with which these volumes have been prepared. The second volume, which has just been issued from the press, is being delivered to subscribers as rapidly as possible. This edition of the statutes will be found a necessity to every lawyer, justices of the peace, and county officers in the State. The publication of the work is a private enterprize, and the publishers' only hope for remuneration is in its sale to those for whose convenience it was prepared. The two volumes contain about 1600
